Application for COBRA Premium Assistance for Entertainment Industry Employees

The New York State COBRA Premium Assistance Program helps entertainment industry employees maintain health coverage. Eligible applicants can receive premium assistance equal to 75% of their COBRA premiums for up to 12 months.

NOTE ON CONFIDENTIALITY: The information you provide on this application will be kept confidential and will only be provided to the state agencies that oversee the program, process payments, or conduct audits.

To qualify for this program:

- You must be a member of an entertainment industry union and a resident of New York state.
- You must be currently receiving, or eligible to receive, COBRA continuation coverage through an entertainment industry union fund.
- You must not already be receiving continuation assistance from a Department of Health program.
- You must not be eligible for Medicare.
- You must not be eligible for employer sponsored coverage.
- Your gross monthly household income must meet the limits listed in the chart below. Gross income means income before taxes are taken out or other deductions are made. All types of income received during the month should be included, not just entertainment related income.

Number of People in Household	Gross Monthly Household Income
1	Up to $ 5,020
2	Up to $ 6,813
3	Up to $ 8,607
4	Up to $ 10,400
5	Up to $ 12,193
Each extra person	Add $ 1,793
